Through a performance contract with TAC, KSSB was able to use guaranteed energy savings to fund the much-needed replacement of HVAC, controls, and lighting in their facilities. KSSB, like many state agencies, was experiencing the inefficiency associated with outdated equipment, while having no access to new capital.

By implementing both a campus-wide lighting retrofit and an Energy Management System, TAC was able to improve existing facilities, solve comfort problems, and generate significant energy savings. Due to KSSB's visually impaired learning environment, painstaking accuracy was used in developing correct lighting levels.

This Performance Contract was the first state contract TAC implemented since being selected as a Preferred Vendor for the state of Kansas.
