

Greg Krissek
ICM

ICM's Director of Government Affairs, Greg Krissek, represents the company on state and federal matters relating to ethanol policy and overall industry development. He has more than 18 years' experience working with ethanol and renewable energy projects as well as related public policy.

Greg currently serves as Chair of the board for the National Ethanol Vehicle Coalition, and he's also the secretary-treasurer of the board for the Ethanol Promotion and Information Council (EPIC) as well as a Kansas Association of Ethanol Processors board member. He also serves on a number of ethanol plant board of directors.

Prior to joining ICM in 2003, Greg spent three years as Director of Operations with the offices of the Kansas Corn Commission, Kansas Corn Growers Association, and Kansas Grain Sorghum Producers Association. He also worked with the Kansas Department of Agriculture (KDA) for 11 years. While at KDA, he served as Assistant Secretary and one year as chief staff coordinator for the Governor's Ethanol Coalition.

Greg holds a B.A. in Economics and Political Science from Rockhurst University in Kansas City as well as a law degree and MBA from the University of Denver. With a staff of more than 800 employees, ICM designs, builds, and supports ethanol plants as well as serves as a leading ethanol industry advocate. For more information, visit icminc.com.
