

Russ Rudy
Buildings Program Manager
Kansas Energy Office

Russ is the Buildings Program Manager for the Kansas Energy Office at the Kansas Corporation Commission.

Russ Rudy founded and directed the Kansas Energy Raters Association, which has evolved into the national Energy and Environmental Ratings Alliance (EERA).

He directed Kansas City's Heart of America Green Builder program and developed the Kansas City Home Builders Build Green program.

Russ has worked as an energy and environmental consultant with the Metropolitan Energy Center in Kansas City, where he hosted the Home Energy Doctor Radio show.

Russ previously taught residential energy efficiency at the Kansas Building Science Institute in Manhattan.