

YUSEF OREST

Yusef Orest is part of the Client Services staff at WindLogics, where he is responsible for client support, sales support, and project management.

Prior to joining WindLogics Yusef was a student at the University of Minnesota at Morris where he received a BA in Economics with an emphasis in renewable energy.

While there he completed an internship involving a demonstration wind energy project, grade school education program, and an economic analysis model for school districts.

Yusef currently resides in Minneapolis, Minnesota and is a native of Morris, Minnesota.