

JASON ZINGERMAN

Jason is Vice President for Construction for RES America Developments, Inc.

Jason has been in the electrical manufacturing, service and construction business for 15 years. During his career at RES he has completed construction of the 60 MW Whirlwind Energy Center in the Texas panhandle. He is currently overseeing 440 MW of wind energy projects currently under construction, including the 99 MW Central Plains project for Westar.