(b) Valuations shall be declared and stated in cents or dollars and cents per pound per article (c) If shipper declines to declare the value or agree to a released value in writing, the shipment cannot be accepted. (d) The agreed or declared value shall be deemed to relate to all services undertaken by the carrier or its agents and to each article separately and not to the shipment as a whole, and such agreed and declared value must be entered on Bill of Lading in the following form: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li style="padding-left: 40px;">The agreed or declared value of the property is hereby specifically stated by the shipper to be not exceeding $ _____ per pound per article. (e) Shipper may declare, on specific articles, valuations in excess of value declared on the Shipment and each such article must be described and its value set forth in space provided on Bill of Lading. Such shipment will be subject to an additional charge in the amount of two per cent (2%) of the total excess value declared for such article or articles. Articles on which the shipper declares a value of more than $10,000 each will not be accepted for transportation. RULE 4 BASIS OF WEIGHT <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) The tare weight of each vehicle used in the transportation of household goods shall be determined by having it weighed prior to the transportation of each shipment, without the crew thereon, by a certified weigh master or on a certified scale, and when so weighed the gasoline tank on each such vehicle shall be full and the vehicle shall contain all blankets, pads, chains, dollies, hand trucks, and other equipment needed in the transportation of such shipment. Each carrier shall retain the vehicle, subject to inspection, a weigh master's certificate or weight ticket as to each such vehicle showing the tare weight, the date weighed, and a list of such equipment. (b) After the vehicle has been loaded it shall be weighed, without the crew thereon, prior to delivery of the shipment and the net weight shall be determined by deducting the tare weight from the loaded weight, except that in instances where no adequate scale is located at origin or at any point within a radius of 10 miles thereof, an constructive weight, based on seven pounds per cubic foot of properly loaded van space, may be used. The gross weight, tare weight, and net weight, or the constructive weight, shall be shown on the Bill of Lading and Freight Bill. (c) In the transportation of part loads this rule shall apply in all respects, except that the gross weight of a vehicle containing one or more part loads may be used as the tare weight of such vehicle as to part loads subsequently loaded thereon, and a part load for any one shipper, not exceeding 1,000 pounds, may be weighed on a certified scale prior to being loaded on a vehicle, such part load to be accompanied by a weight ticket evidencing such weighing. (d) All tare, gross, actual or constructive weights shall be properly certified to by the person or persons who ascertained such weights.

No. 66, supplements thereto or successive issues thereof. (b) If the shipper requests a longer route than the shortest practical route as shown in the above-mentioned Mileage Guide, the mileage over the longer route, as shown therein, shall apply. (c) If mileages are not shown from any point of origin or to any point of destination in the above-mentioned Mileage Guide, the mileage from or to the next more distance point or points shall apply. (d) If transportation rates are not shown herein for the actual distance provided in the above-mentioned guide, the rates shown for the next greater distance shall apply. RULE 10 MARKING AND PACKING <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) Articles of fragile or breakable nature must be properly packed. (b) Packages containing fragile articles or articles consisting wholly or in part of glass, when packed by the shipper or his agent, must be marked by plain and distinct letters designating the fragile character of the contents. (c) When articles of furniture, consisting wholly or in part of glass are covered or wrapped by the shipper or his agent, such articles shall be wrapped in a manner to clearly expose glass surfaces or glass portions. (d) Where articles are improperly packed, crated or boxed and by reason thereof the contents are most susceptible to damage, carrier will arrange to have such articles properly packed at charges as shown in this tariff. RULE 11 COMPLETE ARTICLE Each shipping piece or package and contents thereof shall constitute one article. The total component parts of any article taken apart or knocked down for handling or loading in vehicle shall constitute one article. RULE 12 PERISHABLE ARTICLES OR ARTICLES OF EXTRAORDINARY VALUE <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) The carrier will not assume any liability whatsoever for: Documents, currency, money, jewelry, watches, precious stones, or articles of extraordinary value including accounts, bills, deeds, evidence of debt, securities, notes, postage stamps, stamp collections, revenue stamps, letters or packets of letters, articles of peculiarly inherent value, precious metals or articles manufactured therefrom which are not specifically listed on the bill of lading. (b) When perishable articles are included in a shipment with or without knowledge of the carrier, responsibility for condition or flavor will not be assumed by the carrier. RULE 13 ARTICLES LIABLE TO CAUSE DAMAGE <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) Carrier will not accept for shipment property liable to impregnate or otherwise damage equipment or other property. (b) The carrier will not accept for shipment articles which cannot be taken from the premises without damage to the articles or the premises.

Item No.	Subject And Application
	RULE 14 INSPECTION OF ARTICLES When carrier or his agent believes it necessary that the contents of packages be inspected, he shall make or cause such inspection to be made, or require other sufficient evidence to determine the actual character of the property. RULE 15 SERVICING SPECIAL ARTICLES The transportation rates in this tariff do not include servicing or un-servicing articles or appliances such as Refrigerators, Deep Freeze Cabinets, Radios, Record Players, Washing Machines, Television Sets, Air Conditioners, and the like which, if not properly serviced, may be damaged in, or incident to, transit; nor is liability assumed for any such damage unless said articles or appliances are serviced and un-serviced as provided in (a) or (b) of this item. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) Upon request of shipper, owner or consignee of the goods, carrier will, subject to (b) below, service and un-service such articles and appliances at origin and destination for the additional charge provided in Section 1, Additional Services. Such servicing and un-servicing does not include removal or installation of articles secured to the premises; or plumbing, electrical or carpentry services necessary to disconnect, remove, connect and install such articles and appliances. (b) If carrier does not possess the qualified personnel to properly service and un-service such articles or appliances, carrier will upon request of shipper, owner or consignee, and as agent for them engage third persons to perform the servicing and un-servicing. When third persons are engaged by the carrier to perform any service, the carrier will not assume responsibility for their activities or conduct; amount of their charges; nor for the quality or quantity of service furnished. (c) All charges of the third persons must be paid by the shipper and are in addition to all other charges in this tariff. Such charges will be advanced by the carrier, and billed as an Advanced Charge as provided in Rule 31 herein. RULE 16 IMPRACTICAL PICK-UP OR DELIVERY AND AUXILIARY SERVICES <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) It is the responsibility of the shipper to make shipment accessible to carrier or accept delivery from carrier at a point at which the road haul vehicle may be safely operated. (b) When it is physically impossible for carrier to perform pick-up of shipment at origin address or to complete delivery of shipment at destination address with normally assigned road haul equipment due to the structure of the building, its inaccessibility by highway, inadequate or unsafe public or private road, overhead obstructions, narrow gates, sharp turns, trees shrubbery, the deterioration of roadway due to rain, flood, snow, or nature of an article or articles included in the shipment, the carrier shall hold itself available at point of pick-up or tender delivery at destination at the nearest point of approach to the desired location where the road haul equipment can be made safely accessible. (c) Upon request of the shipper, consignee, or owner of the goods, the carrier will use or engage smaller equipment than its normal road haul equipment or provide extra labor for the purpose, if possible of accomplishment, of transferring the shipment between the residence and the nearest point of approach by the carrier's road haul equipment. Charges for this auxiliary service to cover labor and additional vehicle (if used) will be as provided in Section 1 and shall be in addition to all other transportation and accessorial charges. (d) If the shipper does not accept the shipment at nearest point of safe approach by carrier's road haul equipment to the destination address, the carrier may place the shipment, or any part thereof not reasonably possible for delivery, in storage at the nearest available warehouse of the carrier, or at the option of the carrier, in a public warehouse, subject to a lien for all lawful charges. The liability on the part of the carrier will cease when the

	shipment is unloaded into the warehouse and the shipment shall be considered as having been delivered. (e) Transportation charges to cover the movement of shipment or part thereof from point at which it was originally tendered to warehouse location shall be computed on basis of weight of shipment or that part of shipment stored in warehouse subject to applicable rate as provided in tariff from point at which it was originally tendered to warehouse location, which shall be in addition to charges from initial point of origin to point at which shipment was originally tendered. All accrued charges on the shipment or any part thereof shall be due and payable upon delivery of same to the warehouse. Any subsequent movement from warehouse shall constitute a new shipment. RULE 17 STORAGE IN TRANSIT (a) Storage in transit of shipments covered by this tariff is the holding of the shipment in the warehouse of the carrier or its agent, for storage, pending further transportation, and will be affected only at specific request of the shipper. For the purpose of this rule, a carrier may designate any warehouse to serve as its agent. (b) Except as otherwise provided in Paragraph (e), shipment moving under this rule may be placed in storage in transit only once and for a period not to exceed one hundred and eighty (180) days from day of unloading into warehouse. When not removed at the expiration of the time limit specified herein, the warehouse shall be considered the destination of the shipment, the warehouseman shall be agent for the shipper and the property shall then be subject to the rules, regulations and charges of the warehouseman. (c) When storage in transit is at origin, charges (subject to Rule 20) must be paid 60 days after storage in transit is effected, as follows: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Transportation charges from origin to warehouse where storage in transit is affected. 2. Storage in transit and valuation charges for the first 90-day period of storage in transit. 3. Charges for additional services including valuation charges, advances and other lawful charges. Storage in transit charges for each subsequent 30-day period or fraction thereof, which shipment remains in storage in transit must be paid in advance. (d) When storage in transit is at other than origin, charges (subject to Rule 20) must be paid at the time storage in transit is effected, as follows: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Transportation charges from origin to warehouse where storage in transit is effected. 2. Storage in transit charges for the first 30-day period storage in transit. 3. Charges for additional services including valuation charges, advances and other lawful charges. Storage in transit charges for each 30-day, period or fraction there of, that shipment remains in storage in transit must be paid in advance. (e) When during any one of the 30-day periods within the storage in transit period provided herein, the shipper has given notice for final delivery of the shipment on date fifteen (15) days prior to the expiration of such 30-day period, and the carrier, by no fault of the shipper, fails to provide transportation within such 30-day period, storage in transit or storage charges shall not apply beyond such 30-day period unless shipper cancels or rescinds order for final delivery. All other provisions under the tariff will continue in effect until further transportation is made available by the carrier. Until all lawful charges are paid, property will remain in carrier's or agent's warehouse subject to a lien for all

	such charges. (f) The transportation charges to apply on shipments stored in transit under this rule and forwarded from warehouse will be (a) the applicable tariff rate from initial point of pick-up to warehouse, and, (b) the applicable tariff rate from warehouse location, which, for rate application purposes, will be considered a new point of origin, to destination point viz: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. When point of pick-up or delivery and warehouse are both located within the corporate limits of the same municipality, the pick-up or delivery transportation rate will be as shown in Item 260. 2. When point of pick-up or delivery and warehouse are not in the corporate limits of the same municipality, the pick-up or delivery transportation rate for distances of fourteen (14) miles or less, will be as shown in Item 260. For rates to apply when points are not within the same municipality or within a distance of fourteen (14) miles or less, apply rates as shown in Section 2, from point of pick-up or delivery to municipality in which warehouse is located as provided by the effective mileage guide. (g) Shipper or owner, upon proper notice in writing to the carrier before departure of the shipment, may change destination originally shown on the bill of lading. When the destination of a shipment is changed such change must be recorded on the bill of lading. When the shipment is terminated at the warehouse before expiration of the time limit specified in Paragraph (b), the transportation and other lawful charges shall apply in identical manner as provided in Paragraph (c) or (d) whichever is applicable. (h) When a storage in transit shipment has been placed in a carrier's or agent's warehouse, both the carrier and the warehouse must have in the possession records showing the following: (1) An itemized list of the shipment with the Bill of Lading number noted thereon. (2) Point of origin and destination. (3) Condition of each article when received at and forwarded from the warehouse. (4) The dates when all charges, advances, or payments were made or received. (5) Dates shipment was delivered into and forwarded from the warehouse. (i) During the storage in transit period, shipper may withdraw a portion of the property, provided that all accrued charges on the shipment are paid prior to such withdrawal, except as provided by Rule 20. When the selection of items requires un-stacking and/or restacking of the shipment or a portion of the shipment, charges for such handling shall be assessed in accordance with Item 130. Charges for transportation furnished, if any, for portion selected for delivery shall be assessed on same basis as would apply to that portion as an individual shipment. With reference to the portion of the shipment which remains in the warehouse, shipper may elect in writing to terminate the storage in transit service and place the remaining property in storage with the warehouseman in possession, in which event the warehouse will be considered the destination of the shipment. If the shipper elects to have the remaining portion remain in storage in transit, the following shall be applicable: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Storage in transit charges, if any, for the balance of the storage in transit period shall be assessed on the same basis as would apply to the remainder of the shipment as an individual shipment. 2. Shipper may prepare in writing and file, with the carrier or warehouseman in possession, a revised declaration of value covering the portion of the property remaining in storage in transit (as provided by and subject to the provisions of Rule 3 for the original shipment) and in such cases the valuation charge for the property remaining in storage in transit after such partial delivery or deliveries have been effected shall be based on such revised declarations of value. In the event that the shipper does not file such revised declarations of value. In the event that the shipper does not file such revised declarations of value covering the portion remaining on storage in transit will be based on the value declared on the

As a condition precedent to any claim adjustment or payment, said claim shall be accompanied by the original paid bill for transportation and original bill of lading, if not previously surrendered to the carrier. Carrier may require certified or sworn statement of claim. (b) Carrier shall be immediately notified of all claims for concealed and/or external damage and shall be given reasonable opportunity to inspect alleged external damage or concealed damage in original package. (c) The carrier's liability shall not exceed the cost of repairing or replacing the property lost of damaged with materials of the like kind and quality not exceeding the actual cash value of the property at time and place of loss, with due allowance for depreciation or deterioration however caused, but in no event to exceed the released value as determined under Rule 3. (d) The carrier shall not be liable for loss or damage occurring after the property has been delivered to or receipted for by the consignee or shipper, or the authorized agent of either. When the carrier is directed to unload or to delivery property (or render any services) at a place or places at which the consignee or its agent is not present, the property shall be at the risk of the owner after unloading or delivery. (e) Where the carrier is directed to load property from (or render any services at) a place or places at which the consignor or its agent is not present, the property shall be at the risk of the owner before loading. (f) The carrier's liability with regard to sets or matched pieces shall be limited to repair or replacement of the lost or damaged piece or pieces only and shall not extend to re pair, replacement or recovering of the entire set, but in to event to exceed the released value as determined under Rule 3.

	RULE 20 PAYMENTS (a) The carrier will not deliver or relinquish possession of any property transported by it until all tariff rates and charges thereon have been paid in cash, money order, or certified check, except where other satisfactory arrangements have been made between the carrier and the consignor or consignee, in accordance with rules and regulations of the Kansas Corporation Commission. (b) Nothing herein shall limit the right of the carrier to require, at time of or before shipment, the pre-payment in part or in full or guarantee of the charges. (c) Subject to the foregoing paragraphs, provision for payment of charges on storage in transit shipments is contained in Rule 17. RULE 21 DISPOSITION OF FRACTIONS Unless otherwise provided, to dispose of fractions in computing a charge omit fractions of less than one-half of one cent, and increase to the next whole figure fractions of one-half of one cent or greater. RULE 22 HOURLY RATES Charges based on time shall be computed by multiplying the hourly rate by the time involved. Fractions of an hour will be disposed of as follows: Where the time involved is less than 15 minutes, the charge shall be for one quarter of an hour. When in excess of 15 minutes but not more than 30 minutes, charge for one-half hour. When in excess of 30 minutes but not more than 45 minutes, charge for three-quarters of an hour. When in excess of 45 minutes, charge for one hour. RULE 23 COMPUTING CHARGES Unless otherwise provided herein where rates are stated in amounts per hundred pounds, charges shall be computed by multiplying the total weight involved by the rate shown for a hundred pounds. RULE 24 ALTERNATE CHARGES The total transportation charge on any shipment shall not exceed the charge as would apply on the same shipment under the next greater unit of weight at rate applicable to such next greater unit of weight. RULE 25 MINIMUM WEIGHT CHARGE Except as may be otherwise specifically provided for in this tariff, or as amended, a shipment weighing less than 1,000 pounds shall be accepted only at a weight of 1,000 pounds and applicable rates and charges based on weight shall be subject to 1,000 minimum. NOTE: All shipments are subject to weighing provisions as provided in Rule 4. RULE 26 REISSUED ITEMS OR PAGES Reference made herein to items or pages in this tariff include reference to reissue of such items or pages.

Item No.	Subject And Application
	RULE 27 HANDLING SPECIAL ARTICLES The services covered by this tariff do not include the handling, loading or unloading of any single article which, because of the size or nature of the article, requires rigging service. The extra handling, loading or unloading in every instance must be provided by the shipper or if the carrier has additional personnel and equipment available, such extra services upon request of the shipper may be provided by the carrier at charges as shown in this tariff. When necessary such articles must be securely braced and blocked, and when such bracing or blocking require material not forming part of the regular equipment of the vehicle, or extra labor, such material and labor must be furnished by the shipper. Where service is performed by carrier charges in Item 220 will apply. RULE 29 REGULAR HOURS OF SERVICE Except as otherwise provided, regular hours for service shall be between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. on each day of the week except Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays, national, state or municipal. RULE 30 HOISTING OR LOWERING Hoisting or lowering service will be performed only at points where carrier possesses necessary equipment and experienced personnel to perform such service, weather conditions permitting. Otherwise, upon request of shipper, consignee or owner of the goods, the carrier as agent of and for and in behalf of the shipper, consignee or owner will endeavor to arrange for qualified service, if available, at the expense of shipper, consignee or owner of the goods. In such instances, the carrier will not be responsible for damage to shipment or property. Where services are performed by carrier, charges in Item 220 will apply. RULE 31 ADVANCED CHARGES Charges advanced by carrier for services of others engaged at the request of the shipper will be supported by carrier with a copy of invoice setting forth services rendered, charges and basis thereof, together with reference to applicable schedule or tariff if charges are assessed in accordance therewith. The charges so advanced are in addition to and shall be collected with all other lawful rates and charges. When carrier engages the services of third persons at the request of and as agent for the shipper, carrier will not assume responsibility for their activities or conduct, amount of their charges nor for the quality or quantity of service furnished. RULE 32 DISASSEMBLING AND REASSEMBLING The line haul transportation rates DO NOT include removing any outdoor article embedded in the ground or secured to a building, nor the assembling, disassembling of any outdoor articles such as steel utility cabinets, swing sets, slides, sky rides, jungle gyms, or other outdoor articles of similar nature, not the assembling or disassembling of unusual articles found inside buildings such as steel shelving, pool tables, elongated work tables, counters, etc. Upon request of shipper, owner or consignee, the carrier will disassemble or reassemble such articles, subject to charges provided in Item 130 of Section 1 herein. The shipper, in such case, will be required to furnish, at the time of reassembling, any new hardware, nuts, bolts, etc., necessary to perform the service.

	SECTION 3 CONVERSION TABLE OF RATES These tables shall be used to determine the rates on a shipment when such shipment is released to a value exceeding 30 cents per pound article. The method by which such rates are determined is outlined below:
	EXPLANATION
	TABLE A, 100% of Base Rate – Table A contains the rate applying on a shipment moving at a released value of not exceeding 30 cents per pound per article.
	TABLE B, 105% of Base Rate – Table B contains the rate applying on a shipment when such shipment has been released to a value exceeding 30 cents per pound per article but not exceeding 75 cents per pound per article.
	TABLE C, 110% of Base Rate – Table C contains the rate applying on a shipment when such shipment has been released to a value exceeding 75 cents per pound per article but not exceeding $1.50 per pound per article.
	TABLE B RATES
	1) To determine the rate on a shipment released to a value exceeding 30 cents per pound per article but not exceeding 75 cents per pound per article, first locate the base rate of such shipment in Table A; the rate directly opposite in Table B will be the applicable rate.
	TABLE C RATES
	2) To determine the rate on a shipment released to a value exceeding 75 cents per pound per article but not exceeding $1.50 per pound per article, first locate the base rate of such shipment in Table A; the rate directly opposite in Table C will be the applicable rate.
